

Distinguished Teaching Award 2018 Nomination Guidelines and Procedures

Committee on Teaching
Berkeley Division of the Academic Senate
University of California

Purpose of the award

The Distinguished Teaching Award is intended to recognize individual faculty for sustained performance of excellence in teaching. Above and beyond an individual exemplary class, such sustained excellence in teaching incites intellectual curiosity in students, inspires departmental colleagues, and makes students aware of significant relationships between the academy and the world at large.

Nature of the Award

Recipients of the Distinguished Teaching Award receive a cash award from the campus and recognition by the Academic Senate. They are honored at a public ceremony, and they are permanently indicated as Distinguished Teachers in the UC Berkeley catalog. Distinguished Teachers are frequently called upon by the campus to provide a voice in issues related to teaching. They serve on forums, panels, and committees involving teaching issues, and they are advocates for excellence in teaching at Berkeley.

Eligibility

All members of the Academic Senate and non-Senate faculty/instructors with continuing appointments are eligible.

- A. The intent of the Distinguished Teaching Award is to recognize faculty members who have established a sustained and varied record of teaching excellence. At minimum, nominees must have at least eight semesters in residence at the time of nomination. The current fall semester does not count towards this requirement. In general, it is expected that the nominee has taught at least six regularly scheduled courses (or at least four regularly scheduled courses in the case they fulfill a double course load within the department, e.g., some large enrollment courses) in the last eight semesters in residence. Less than six courses (or four double-load courses) during this period would not provide sufficient evidence for the Committee on Teaching (COT) to review in the selection process. Evidence of accomplishment does not necessarily require long years of service, which in themselves would not be considered sufficient grounds for recognition.
- B. The Committee on Teaching believes that excellence in teaching and excellence in creative and scholarly work—both essential duties of Senate faculty members—go hand in hand. Therefore, Senate faculty members who are nominated will be those who have successfully united these two roles.
- C. Lecturers are judged on their excellence in teaching and their contributions to the teaching mission of the University.
- D. Part of the selection process involves classroom visits by members of the Committee on Teaching. All nominees must therefore be scheduled to teach during the Spring 2018 semester; if not, then the Committee cannot accept the nomination.
- E. Only one candidate should be nominated by a department in any year.

Selection criteria

The Committee on Teaching draws criteria from a number of sources, including but not limited to, the University of California Academic Personnel Manual, Section D, Criteria for Appointment, Promotion, and Appraisal, and the Committee on Teaching's policy on the Evaluation of Teaching for Advancement and Promotion (Spring 1987).

Criteria for Teaching Excellence (to be considered where applicable)

In general, Distinguished Teachers will excel in the following areas:

- Effective design and redesign of courses.
- Ability to engage and inspire in students independent and original thinking.
- Enthusiasm and vitality in learning and teaching.
- Active involvement in and guidance of student research projects, both undergraduate and graduate.
- Advising students with personal attention and care.
- Mentorship and supervision of Graduate Student Instructors (GSIs) that facilitates effective teaching.

Nomination Process

The nomination process is divided into two stages. In the first stage, a limited amount of information is required. Those candidates recommended for Stage Two will be asked to submit more substantial information. The Committee seeks evidence from a wide variety of sources, detailed below

Stage One	Deadline: Wednesday, October 11, 2017
------------------	----------------------------------------------

Material provided by the department and summarized in Stage One Submission Checklist on page 4.

Please note that it is the requirement of the Committee that a candidate not be informed of a Stage One nomination. The Committee wishes to minimize the number of candidates who pass nearly a whole academic year in anticipation of an award that may not be conferred. When a nominee is forwarded to Stage Two, the nominator informs the candidate. While the nomination needs to be approved and submitted by the department chair, vice-chair for instruction, or other appropriate official, the nomination itself may be initiated by anyone in a department, including students.

After reviewing the nominations from Stage One, the Committee on Teaching will select nominees for further consideration. Nominating departments will be notified before the end of the Fall Semester as to the status of their nomination.

Stage Two	Deadline: Wednesday, February 7, 2018
------------------	----------------------------------------------

Material provided by the nominee and the department and summarized in Stage Two Submission Checklist on page 9.

SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS:

1. The department member/s who will be completing and submitting the required materials for each stage should first email teaching@berkeley.edu with “DTA nomination” in the subject line. The content of the email should include the full name, title and department affiliation of the nominee.
2. Upon receipt of the email, a bDrive folder will be created and shared with the department contact person/s. The folder will be labeled based on the last name and department of the nominee. The folder will only be able to be viewed by members of the COT (after the stage deadlines) and the individual department contact person/s. Only the department contact person/s will have editing rights in the folder.
3. In order to simplify the nomination process for both the department and the Committee, we have provided a number of forms that can be used to provide the information requested. All blank forms for each stage will be pre-loaded into the folder as GoogleDocs, and should be filled out online by the department contact person/s.
4. All other requested materials should be uploaded into the folder. Raw student evaluations will likely need to be uploaded as a .zip file.
5. After each stage deadline, department contact persons’ access will be removed from the folder, and subsequently only COT members will be able to view the materials. Department contact persons may revise, change, and edit materials uploaded, and GoogleDoc forms filled out, up to the stated deadlines for each stage.

Please feel free to contact teaching@berkeley.edu, with “DTA” in the subject line if you have questions.

Stage One Submission Checklist Deadline: Wednesday, October 11, 2017

Materials should be submitted to the DTA bDrive folder designated for the nominee.

(All forms can be completed online in the DTA bDrive folder).

- a. Nominating Letter: No more than 2000 words, from the department chair or head of the departmental committee on teaching, etc. This letter carries a great deal of weight in the Stage One nomination. It will show, among other things, how the nominee clearly rises above otherwise good teaching in the department, how the nominee's research and teaching work together, and how students respond to the teaching. Please see Criteria for Teaching Excellence for some guidance.

- b. Chronological List of Courses Taught: Table containing a chronological list of all courses taught during the last eight semesters in residence.

- c. Quantitative Summary and Comparison: Quantitative summary and comparison of student evaluations of those courses listed in (b).

- d. Grade Distribution Chart: Grade distribution charts for any two courses offered in the most recent four semesters in residence.

- e. Raw Student Evaluations: Raw student evaluations gathered for the same two courses in (d). Do not submit summary data, but rather the evaluations themselves with student comments.

- f. Teaching Schedule: Nominee's fall 2017 and spring 2018 "Teaching Schedule." Members of the Committee on Teaching will observe classes of those nominees advanced to Stage Two and may visit in late fall if time permits.

*Note: While not a required component of the dossier, the COT has included one document in each dossier folder titled "SET comments" (Student Evaluations of Teaching). This document is to be used by the department nominator to mark any student comments on SETs that may be deemed inappropriate or overtly biased. The COT would like to be notified of these and will consider them in their overall review of dossier materials.
